

POTATOES BREAK 40-YEAR RECORD

New York Dependent Upon Mercy of Maine Farmers for Supply

NO RELIEF SEEN UNTIL MAY 15

Little Speculation, Says Dealer—Hints Farmers Hold the Supply

Potatoes, which usually cost the New York housekeeper less than three cents a pound at this season were selling yesterday at 7 cents and more and may go on rising.

The wholesale price of potatoes in New York City yesterday was $9 for a sack of 165 pounds—about $3.33 a bushel. Retail they ranged from $3.40 to $3.50 a bushel. A week ago the wholesale price was $7 a sack, three weeks ago it was $6 and a year ago it was $2.25 to $2.50, which is normal.

In the last four days of last week the wholesale price jumped 50 cents a day. A dealer with more than forty years' experience said that prices were higher than at any time in his recollection.

Four reasons have been assigned for the soaring market—short crops, heavy demand, speculation and railway congestion. The first three were given at the Bureau of Food and Drug Inspection of the City Health Department, though none of the officials there could say who was doing the speculating or where they had their storages.

Speculation in a great degree was accused by the commission merchant. "There may be some," he said, "but I do not believe there is as much speculation of potatoes in all New York as there were the owners would be loath to sell at the prices they can get now. The truth is there are simply not enough potatoes to supply the demand. Most of the supply is in the hands of the farmers and the small dealers in the potato towns.

"We are going to have to offer $10, and then still more," he continued. "But don't think we are getting the money. The potatoes we bought yesterday at $9 will cost us $9.77 when they get here. That means we'll have to sell them to the grocers at more than $10."

New York City gets its potatoes from Maine, New Jersey and Long Island. Local dealers assert that the New Jersey and Long Island crops have virtually disappeared, thousands of bushels being shipped to the Middle West. The result is that New York is at the mercy of the Maine farmers and such other persons as are able to take a toll between Maine and the dining table.

Dealers say that railway congestion has little effect on the market. The Florida crop, which ordinarily relieves the situation about April 1, is said to be short, the next important crop is that of South Carolina, due about May 15.

Onions yesterday were selling at $15.00 for 100 pounds wholesale. A week ago they cost $12 wholesale. On week 1 the price was $3.

Sugar and Coal Famine Threatened in Bayonne

Bayonne is threatened with a sugar and a coal famine. Both commodities have become so scarce as a result of strikes and railroad congestion that the newspapers yesterday warned all citizens having coal on hand to use it as sparingly as possible. Sugar could not be obtained at any price at many of the groceries.

Some grocers would sell sugar only to their regular customers in one-pound lots. The coal shortage, which started two weeks ago as a result of a drivers' strike, has been augmented, dealers say, by the railroad congestion and heavy snows in the vicinity of the mines.

Jersey Farmers See Shortage of Crops

Vineyard, N. J., Feb. 19.—Short crops, not only of potatoes but of all other vegetables usually shipped in large quantities by farmers of this vicinity, will be raised here this year. Munitions factories have so stripped the farms of labor that the farmers say it will be impossible to raise vegetables except in such small quantities as they themselves can cultivate.

In addition to labor conditions, high prices of seeds will prove a factor in the shortage. Ordinarily, high grade seed potatoes may be purchased at $3 a sack, the price to-day was $10, and indications were that it would increase yet more.

WASHINGTON WILL SUPPLY MEAT NEWS TO BIG CITIES

Market Service Begun by Department of Agriculture

Washington, Feb. 19.—A market news service on meats was put in operation to-day by the Department of Agriculture, to place at the disposal of meat producers and the wholesale and retail trade useful information regarding supplies on hand, the demand for the various kinds and grades of meat, and other factors influencing the trade.

In New York, Boston and Philadelphia, where conditions are representative of those in other large consuming centers, government agents hereafter will obtain early each day all available information. These reports will be made available at those places and also at Chicago, Kansas City and Omaha, to persons interested early in the business day, and for publication.

ADOPTS TRANSIT CONNECTION

P. S. C. Takes Step Toward Relieving Central Brooklyn Congestion

As a first step toward carrying out the new transit plans for the relief of central Brooklyn, the Public Service Commission has adopted the general route to provide for a connection at Atlantic Place, between the Fourth Avenue subway and the Fulton Street elevated line. If the consent of the Board of Estimate is obtained, the route will go before Mayor Mitchell for his approval, and later effort will be made to obtain the consent of the existing property owners.

Meanwhile the Commission has directed its engineering staff to prepare necessary plans for carrying out the connection. The route extends along Fulton Street, and partly in Lafayette Avenue, for a short distance, between Vanderbilt Avenue on the east and Rockwell Place on the west. The connection will be a two-track line with provisions for the addition of a third.

THE SIGN OF SERVICE SOCONY MOTOR GASOLINE

The sign of a good supply dealer is service. And the sign of service is the Red, White and Blue SOCONY Sign. It marks a safe place to stop. The dealers listed below display the SOCONY Motor Gasoline Sign. Gasoline bought from them is sure to be the full-powered, uniform, "quality" gasoline—"So-CO-ny." Ask for it by name.
